

What to see and do

Whatever the season, whatever the weather, exploring the Haut-Koenigsbourg is an exceptional experience. Perched on a rocky spur, it has a fantastic panoramic view. Its forest location means it's even a pleasure simply getting there. The whole family will enjoy visiting a medieval fortress: history lovers will enjoy learning more about the past of this great Alsatian monument and others will be interested to hear about its remarkable restoration. The castle has a wide range of tours, activities and events for individuals or groups; so take your pick...
