

Chronological milestones

- 2007 - Ownership of the Haut-Koenigsbourg castle is transferred to the Bas-Rhin Departmental Council (European Collectivity of Alsace since 1 January 2021) within the context of the 13 August 2004 law relative to local government management ("libertés et responsabilités locales").
- 2008 - Haut-Koenigsbourg Castle celebrates the centenary of its restoration.
- 2009 - Opening of an audiovisual interpretation area dedicated to people with reduced mobility and multiple disabilities. An investment of nearly 450,000 euros enabled the installation and fitting out of this space.
- 2011 - €7.7 million is committed to bringing the castle's technical installations up to standard. Start of a new phase of works, scheduled over 3 years, included in the master plan for the works.
- 2012 - Haut-Koenigsbourg castle receives the Diploma of Merit and European Prestige of the Committee of Europe. This prize rewards restoration, upgrading to standards and accessibility to specific audiences and handicapped people. This last action is doubly rewarded by the 2012 Women in Tourism Trophy.
- 2014 - After 2 years of work, the keep is once again accessible to the public.
- 2016 - Bruno Caro is made head of the monument.
